Spouse Sponsorship Program

- Established in March 2011
- Purpose: To support spouses new to community and assist with smooth transition
- Support: Garrison Leadership, Army Community Services, Community Volunteers (Welcome Warriors), Family Readiness Groups, Family Readiness Group Assistants
- Benefits:
 - Families new to Schweinfurt feel welcome and adjust more quickly to new home.
 - Volunteers invaluable support to transitioning Families by lessening fears, anxiety, and stressors associated with transition
 - Community provides hometown feel where people care about people

Welcome Warriors

- Meet new Families arriving on the Frankfurt bus in Schweinfurt twice daily
- Warm greeting, provide critical information to assist with 24/48 adjustment, gain contact/unit information for follow-up within 24/48 hours, invited to attend weekly newcomers' Meet & Greet
- Meet & Greet informal opportunity to meet community spouses, gain information pertinent to specific transitional needs, new spouse paired with volunteer spouse sponsor
- Newcomers connected with volunteer spouse who provides emotional support and information about military and local community, gets them connected to community resources, empowers newcomers to stay connected

Volunteers Spouse Sponsors

- Trained by Army Community Service and registered in Volunteer Program (VMIS)
- Volunteer Leadership manages day to day program with ACS & Garrison oversight
- Success of program is reliant upon committed and dedicated community volunteers
- Goal is to have spouse volunteers represented from each unit (depending on size of unit)
- Volunteers needed in variety of areas from 2 hours to 10 hours per week (or as available)

CHAPLAIN COVERAGE PLAN: During Summer Transition and upcoming deployment, contact the RSO at 09721-96-1370/354-1370 for Chaplain Support. After duty hours and for emergencies only, call the IOC at 09721-96-6708, who will contact the On-Call Chaplain.
